A corporation may deduct up to $1,960 per beneficiary from its income.

You qualify for the tax benefits even if you contribute more or less than the maximum amounts. If someone else contributes to your my529 account, you will receive the tax credit as the account owner.

Liquidated Funds Transfer: 529 Plan, Coverdell ESA, or Savings Bonds

ABOUT THIS FORM

- Use this form to transfer liquidated funds from another 529 plan, a Coverdell Education Savings Account (ESA), or qualified U.S. Savings Bonds to an existing my529 account.
- A my529 account must be established before funds can be transferred.
- From another 529 plan: To roll over liquidated funds into my529 from another 529 plan, enclose documentation from the other 529 plan showing the portion of the amount that is principal and the portion that is earnings. If you do not provide this documentation, the full amount will be considered earnings, which could result in a greater proportion of your account being subject to taxes and tax penalties in case of a nonqualified withdrawal. A rollover from one 529 plan to another 529 plan for the benefit of the same beneficiary can occur only once every 12 months.
- From a Coverdell ESA: To transfer liquidated funds from a Coverdell ESA, enclose documentation from the financial company that held the Coverdell ESA, showing the portion of the amount that is principal and the portion that is earnings. If you do not provide this documentation, the full amount will be considered earnings, which could result in a greater proportion of your account being subject to taxes and tax penalties in case of a nonqualified withdrawal.
- From a U.S. Savings Bond: To transfer a liquidated U.S. Savings Bond, please enclose form 1099-INT or a statement from the financial institution showing the interest paid upon redemption of the bonds. If you do not provide this documentation, the full amount will be considered earnings, which could result in a greater proportion of your account being subject to taxes and tax penalties in case of a nonqualified withdrawal.
