

2018 Utah state tax benefits information and year-end deadlines

Utah taxpayers can save on Utah state income taxes while saving for education. Contributions to a my529 account qualify for a Utah state income tax credit or deduction, up to the amounts in the table below.

2018 Utah State Income Tax Benefits
Tax Filer	my529 Account Type	2018 Maximum Allowable Contribution for a Utah State Income Tax Benefit	2018 Maximum Utah State Income Tax Credit per Beneficiary (5%)
Single	Individual	$1,960	$98
Joint	Individual	$3,920	$196
Trusts	Institutional	$1,960	$98
Grantor Trust, Married Filing Jointly	Institutional	$3,920	$196
Flow Through Entity	Institutional	$1,960	$98
Corporation	Institutional	$1,960	$1,960*

*deduction

Calculate your my529 income tax credit:

1. Multiply contribution amounts by 5 percent for each qualified beneficiary.
2. Add totals from each beneficiary.

A corporation may deduct up to $1,960 per beneficiary from its income.

You qualify for the tax benefits even if you contribute more or less than the maximum amounts. If someone else contributes to your my529 account, you will receive the tax credit as the account owner.

Meet year-end deadlines to claim tax benefits for 2018 contributions to your my529 account.

Form 810

Individual Limited Power of Attorney Authorization

ABOUT THIS FORM

- Use this form to grant an individual limited power of attorney authority to obtain information about your selected my529 account(s) and to perform specific acts on your behalf as identified in section 4. You may also submit this form to revoke any limited power of attorney authorization on file with my529 and grant a new individual limited power of attorney authority for the same accounts.
- A limited power of attorney authorization allows the individual you designate in section 2 to act as your attorney-in-fact, agent, and authorized representative on your behalf as specified in section 4 of this authorization. However, you will continue to control the account(s) and may perform any of the actions you grant the individual permission to perform.
- To grant an entity limited power of attorney authority, complete an Entity Limited Power of Attorney Authorization form (Form 710) instead of this form.
- my529 cannot and does not provide legal, financial, or tax advice. Accordingly, you should consult your legal advisor if you have any questions concerning the consequences of submitting this form.

NEXT STEPS

- An individual must be registered with my529 to be listed in section 2. You must obtain the LPOA Number from the individual. If the individual has not registered with my529, the Individual Limited Power of Attorney Registration (Form 800) may be submitted to my529 with this form and the LPOA Number boxes may be left blank.
- If you execute this limited power of attorney and your email address is provided on this form or is on record with my529, the delivery method for quarterly account statements and official my529 communications will be set to online for the accounts selected in section 3.
- A power of attorney authorization shall continue in effect until it is revoked or terminated as specified below.

SUBMITTING THIS FORM

- Please print clearly—preferably in capital letters, using black or blue ink. To ask questions about completing this form, contact my529 toll-free at 888.529.1886 on business days from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. MT.
- Return this form to: my529, PO Box 145100, Salt Lake City, UT 84114-5100. For delivery by overnight carrier, send to: my529, Board of Regents Building, Gateway 2, 60 South 400 West, Salt Lake City, UT 84101-1284. You may also fax this form to 888.529.9197.

3 my529 Account Selection Information

Complete section 3A or 3B to specify the my529 accounts for which you are granting an individual limited power of attorney authority. You may grant only one limited power of attorney for all your my529 accounts with the same beneficiary.

A. Accounts for All Beneficiaries (Initial on line at left. e.g., MD)

Initial in the box at left to grant the individual designated in section 2 limited power of attorney authority for ALL my529 accounts for ALL beneficiaries for which you are currently the account owner/agent. The authorization level you select in section 4 will apply to ALL of your accounts.

Initial after printing

OR

B. Accounts for Selected Beneficiaries

Provide beneficiary information below to grant the individual designated in section 2 limited power of attorney authority for all my529 accounts for which you are the account owner/agent for each of the listed beneficiaries.

Beneficiary's Name (Last, First)	Date of Birth (mm/dd/yyyy)	U.S. Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number
Beneficiary's Name (Last, First)	Date of Birth (mm/dd/yyyy)	U.S. Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number
Beneficiary's Name (Last, First)	Date of Birth (mm/dd/yyyy)	U.S. Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number
Beneficiary's Name (Last, First)	Date of Birth (mm/dd/yyyy)	U.S. Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number

If the number of beneficiaries exceeds the space available, attach a separate page showing the information requested in this section for the additional beneficiaries.

4 Authorization Level for Limited Power of Attorney

- Complete this section to designate the individual's level of limited power of attorney authority for your my529 accounts selected in section 3.
- You may only designate one level of authority for all of the accounts selected in section 3 of this form. To grant a different level of authority for other accounts you own, please complete separate form(s).

The authority granted to the individual is limited to the authority designated in the table below and does not include the following actions:

The individual may not change, add, or delete the following account information:

- Account owner/agent
- Beneficiary
- Primary and/or secondary successors
- Addresses of the owner, beneficiary, or successors

The individual may not take any of the following actions:

- Open a new my529 account on your behalf
- Transfer funds to my529 accounts for which you are not the account owner

After printing, please initial only ONE level of authority (the lowest level is Level 1, the highest level is Level 3).

Print, then initial on only ONE line (e.g., MD)	Obtain Account Information	Initiate Transactions Online or with Applicable Form
		Contributions	Investment Option Changes	Transfers Within Your Accounts	Withdrawals
Level 1 Low (Informational) _____	Online/Phone	No	No	No	No
Level 2 Medium (Limited) _____	Online/Phone	Yes	Yes	Yes	No
Level 3 High (Limited + Withdrawals) _____	Online/Phone	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes ¹

¹Withdrawal checks may be made payable only to the account owner, the beneficiary, or an eligible educational institution. my529 will not issue checks to other parties. Account owners can link a bank account to receive electronic deposits from my529 account withdrawals initiated online by financial advisors.

Check the box at left if you do NOT grant the individual access to copies of your 1099-Q tax forms, which are generated and issued by my529, for the accounts of the beneficiaries designated in section 3. This selection will remain in effect until this Limited Power of Attorney Authorization is either (1) revoked or (2) my529 receives, for the accounts of the beneficiaries designated in section 3, a Limited Power of Attorney Authorization form (Form 710 or 810) with a different selection in this box.

For Utah residents/taxpayers only: Check the box at left if you do NOT grant the individual access to copies of your TC-675H tax forms, which are generated and issued by my529. Please note that form TC-675H contains aggregated information about contributions, withdrawals, and transfers for ALL accounts you own (not just the accounts of the beneficiaries designated in section 3). This selection will remain in effect until this Limited Power of Attorney Authorization is either (1) revoked or (2) my529 receives, for any account you own, a Limited Power of Attorney Authorization form (Form 710 or 810) with a different selection in this box.

In addition to the authority described above:

- The individual can receive a copy of this completed form from my529.
- For the accounts selected in section 3, the individual can transmit to their third-party agent(s), and/or instruct my529 to transmit to the individual's third-party agent(s) your financial data, including the following: (1) the account number, (2) account owner and beneficiary names and contact information, (3) primary and secondary successor names, (4) transaction history, (5) investment options, (6) account balances, and (7) quarterly statements.

5 Account Owner/Agent Signature and Notarization

Your signature on this form must be notarized and returned to my529. A signature guarantee in place of a notary's seal will not be accepted.

By signing below, I hereby execute this limited power of attorney. I understand, agree, and certify that:

- I have the power and authority to execute this limited power of attorney authorization.
- I am allowing the individual named in section 2 limited power of attorney authority for my my529 accounts selected in section 3, as described in section 4.
- If my email address is provided on this form or is on record with my529, the delivery method for quarterly account statements and official my529 communications will be set to online for the accounts selected in section 3.
- The filing of this limited power of attorney automatically revokes any earlier limited power of attorney authorization on file with my529 for the same my529 accounts covered by this form.
- This limited power of attorney authorization does not impose a duty on the individual to exercise the granted authority; however, when such authority is exercised, the individual will be responsible for any resulting consequences of such actions and will be responsible for maintaining records relating to such actions.
- I will indemnify and hold harmless my529, the State of Utah, the Utah State Board of Regents, and the Utah Higher Education Assistance Authority and their officials, employees, and agents from and against any and all liability, claims, suits, losses, costs, and legal fees caused by, arising out of, or resulting from acting upon instructions believed by any of them to have originated from the individual to whom I grant limited power of attorney authority, and from all acts of the individual covered by this limited power of attorney authorization.
- This limited power of attorney authorization will remain in effect for my selected my529 account(s) until it is revoked or terminated by any of the following actions:
 - The account group becomes closed (i.e., there are no open accounts for the same owner/beneficiary combination for whom the LPOA has been established)
 - my529 receives a new Limited Power of Attorney Authorization form (Form 710 or 810) for account(s) selected in section 3 of this form
 - my529 receives an Individual Limited Power of Attorney Revocation form (Form 820) or the limited power of attorney authorization is revoked online at my529.org
 - The account owner/agent is changed
 - The account beneficiary is changed
 - The account type is changed
 - my529 receives written notification of my death
- If I become disabled, incapacitated, or incompetent after signing this form, this limited power of attorney authorization will continue in effect until it is revoked or terminated.
- Revocation or termination of the power of attorney due to my death, court determination, or any other reason is not effective as to my529 until my529 receives written notification of the revocation or termination and has had a reasonable amount of time to act on such notice.
